

final. It was the first Fed Cup title for the US since 2000. "It feels perfectly believable and unbelievable," Vandeweghe said. "I'm ready for a vacation."

The Belarus pair led 5-2 in the second set and served to level at one-set apiece in the eighth, 10th and 12th games. The Americans dominated the tiebreaker, winning five of the last six points.

Sasnovich had kept Belarus alive after beating US Open champion Sloane Stephens 4-6, 6-1, 8-6 to leave the final level at 2-2 on the indoor hard-court Chizhovka Arena.

Vandeweghe earlier beat Sabalenka 7-6 (5), 6-1 to give the US a 2-1 lead.

Kathy Rinaldi, in her inaugural season in charge of the Americans, became the first female captain in the tournament to lead a Fed Cup team to victory since Billie Jean King for the U.S. in 2000.

"It's been an incredible ride thanks to these ladies," Rinaldi said. "We're family and we've had each other's backs. This was a very tough match."

The US holds the most Fed Cup titles in the international team competition. This was its fourth Fed Cup final since last winning in 2000. It lost the 2003, 2009 and 2010 finals. Belarus was making its first appearance in a Fed Cup final.

"We are really satisfied we gained this result," Belarus captain Eduard Dubrou said. "Today's match has showed we have a good team because last time we faced the team of USA it was 5-love and today we were really close to a good result for us."

Vandeweghe proved the difference between the two teams. She has won all eight Fed Cup matches she's played this season - six singles and two doubles. Vandeweghe is the first player to win eight matches since the current eight-team World Group format was introduced in 2005.

"I had a great time out
